NJHS

Superintendent, Principal or Assistant Principal for the Day! All proceeds will benefit our school's participation in the Student Change Hunger competition. Deadline line extended until TUESDAY 11/21. Tickets will be sold at lunch OR you can send in money with the form linked here.

Counselor's Corner

On World Kindness Day, Mrs. Mason visited Kindergarten, first grade and second grade classrooms to share how we all have "invisible buckets" that hold all the happiness and kindness we receive each day. We discussed that when we are kind towards others, we help fill both their buckets and our own buckets. Ask your children what filled their buckets today!

This month, the Mountz character virtue is Self Control. To practice self-control, students played games such as Jenga, Simon Says and freeze dance with their buddies this week. Our students have also shared various ways they practice having self-control, which is displayed in the hallway.
